

WHYALLA NEWS

JAMM FOR GENES rocks the community

By Louis Mayfield 15 Aug 2016

ROC K STAR: ROCK BAND 101 member Logan Wagner rocks the stage at the 10th annual JAMM FOR GENES.
JAMM FOR GENES: Breeze Millard performs at her 9th JAMM for GENES.

Whyalla's 10th Annual 'JAMM FOR GENES' was held in front of a bumper crowd of over 180 people in the Westland Shopping Centre Foodcourt on Thursday.

The Stormfront Productions event is Australia's longest-running 'Jamm' and in 2016 raised a total of $646.10 - bringing the 10-year Whyalla total to almost $5500.

A 35-strong cast rocked the shops in a 39-song, 2-hour entertainment extravaganza featuring solos, group songs, guitar and piano - with feature performances by Rock Band 101, Club Voice and Songs 'n Steps crews.

YOUNG STAR: Youngest performer Madison Green leads the group.

The event included special "10th Anniversary" guest appearances by Stormfront Music Tutoring alumna Emma Taylor, Stephanie Milovski and Shakira Fausermade.

Presenters Mark Tempany and Alison Hams said they were 'thrilled' with the outcome of the event.

"Not only did our performers really embrace the true spirit of what our Jamm is about – raising funds and awareness for Children's Medical Research – but they truly contributed to a happy, festive atmosphere."