Child-Related Employment Screening

Mark Christopher TEMPANY 30 April 19

The Department for Communities and Social Inclusion (DCSI) Screening Unit has finalised your request for Child-Related Employment Screening. You have been assessed as suitable for further consideration to work or volunteer with children pursuant to the Children's Protection Regulations 2010. It is the responsibility of the requesting organisation to determine your appointment or otherwise.

The Standards for dealing with information obtained about the criminal history of employees and volunteers who work with children, published by the Chief Executive in accordance with Section 8A(j) of the Children's Protection Act 1993, state that Child-Related Employment Screening is portable between organisations in South Australia and is valid for three (3) years.

You may be obliged to inform your employer or volunteer organisation if you have been charged with a criminal offence, or if any other event or incident occurs, including matters of a child protection or professional disciplinary nature, that may be reasonably considered to indicate that you pose a risk of harm to children.

This letter is not an offer of employment, registration, accreditation or engagement for any organisation. Please see the reverse side of this letter for important information.

Please check that your personal identification information recorded on the front of this letter is correct. If the information is correct, you do not need to contact the Screening Unit. If the information is incorrect, please provide your correct name and date of birth details and the Screening Unit reference number (located at the top left corner of this letter) via email to screening@dcsi.sa.gov.au.

If you have questions relating to the screening process please visit the Screening Unit website at www.dcsi.sa.gov.au/services/screening or contact the Screening Unit at screening@dcsi.sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
