

WHYALLA NEWS

JAMM back again

Louis Mayfield – September 19th 2018

MUSIC: Ciara Francis and Alison Hams perform at the JAMM for Genes.

Whyalla's Jamm for Genes charity concert is on again for the 12th year running.

Australia's longest running JAMM is proudly presented by Stormfront Productions with Whyalla's best young musical talent on show to raise much needed funds and awareness for the Children's Medical Research Institute.

All proceeds from the night will be donated to the Jeans For Genes cause and the important work CMRI does to find cures for children's diseases and genetic disorders.

Last year Whyalla's JAMM was the highest fundraiser in South Australia, and Stormfront's Mark Tempany and Alison Hams would love to do the same again this year.

"Whyalla's JAMM is always a highlight on our annual calendar," Mark said.

"Not only does the audience enjoy a family friendly night with talented musicians in a professional concert setting, but they know that every cent we raise goes to this very important cause".

Whyalla's 12th annual JAMM FOR GENES is 6pm on Thursday September 27th in the Saint James Hall on Ryan Avenue.

Fundraising on the night will include Jeans For Genes merchandise and a giant chocolate raffle, with refreshments also available for purchase. Entry is by gold coin donation and everyone is welcome.

A JAMMing success

Louis Mayfield – October 1st 2018

Whyalla's JAMM 4 Genes continues to be the most successful in the state, with Stormfront Productions raising a total of $847 to fund crucial research into genetic diseases.

A number of talented young musicians performed to a packed crowd at the concert, which was held at the Saint James Hall on Ryan Avenue last Thursday.

Stormfront Productions' Alison Hams and Mark Tempany said they were 'extremely proud' to give back to the community through the JAMM.

"The talent on display last night was awesome and seamlessly joined all musical styles and abilities," they said.

"We choose not to ask others to fund us - but rather to go to extraordinary lengths to support others whenever we can."

Stormfront Productions thanked the Saint James Lutheran Church for donating the venue for the night.